BEAUTY BODY TREATMENT

Body Scrub and Body Wrap

Body wraps and scrubs are all-natural, most often containing a mixture of herbs and minerals designed to beautify the skin. Essential oils, sugar, herbs or sea salts may also be used in daily spa body treatments, helping to tone and soften the skin while helping to get rid of those unwanted inches. Results sometimes may be realized immediately. But toxins and interstitial fluids eventually re-accumulate, so regular body wraps/scrubs or polish may provide better long-term benefits.
